General Expectations:

Students are expected to:

- Attend all classes and be responsible for all materials covered in class and otherwise assigned;
- Complete the daily required reading and assignments before class;
- Review the previous class notes before class and make notes about questions you have about the previous class or the course reading;
- Participate in class discussions and complete required written work on time;
- Refrain from texting, phoning or engaging in computer activities unrelated to class during the class period;
- While class participation is welcome, even required, you are expected to refrain from private conversations during the class period.

Attending Policy

Regular and prompt attendance is required. Attendance will be taken at the start of the course. Those that miss their name, during roll call, will be counted as absent.

Students can miss up to three classes (including labs) and earn 7% (out of 10%). After the third absence, students will earn a grade of 0% (out of 10%). Arriving late and/or leaving before the end of the class are equivalent to absences.

Policy on “Late Withdrawals”

In accordance with the policy of UCAM, appeals for late withdrawal will be approved ONLY in case of medical emergency and similar crises.

Academic Honesty

All students are expected to respect academic honesty policy. Instructors will fail assignments that show any evidence of plagiarism or other forms of cheating and will also report the student's information to the University Administration Office. A student reported to the University for cheating will be placed on the list of disciplinary probation; a student reported twice will be suspended or expelled.

Special Needs or Assistance

Please contact the University Administrative Office immediately if you have a learning disability, a medical issue, or any other type of problem that prevents professors from seeing you have learned the course material.
